

LETTER FROM A. M. KILEY

Wants to Aid in Erecting Monument to Confederate Women.

WANTED IN RICHMOND

Negro Arrested Who Escaped Through Coal Hole at New Jail Here a Year Ago.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 25.—On the 24th of June last there was unveiled in Old Blandford Church a beautiful marble memorial tablet to the citizens of Petersburg, boys and old men, who fell in the unequal engagement on June 3, 1864, between the Home Guard, of Petersburg, commanded by Col. Fletcher Archer, and a detachment of the Federal army under command of Col. Kautz. This tablet was erected through the efforts of Mrs. R. T. Meade, president of the Petersburg Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and her associates.

Mrs. Meade sent the newspaper accounts of the ceremonies in the church to Judge A. M. Kiley, who, at the time of the battle, was a citizen of Petersburg, and took part in the engagement. He was made a prisoner and spent some months in a Northern prison.

Mrs. Meade has received the following letter from Judge Kiley:

JUDGE KILEY, ST. LOUIS, MO.
"My Dear Mrs. Meade:—Your favor of the 22d ultimo, with its enclosure, giving your memorial proceedings, has just arrived from London, and I hasten to thank you for the clippings which much interested me.

"I congratulate you heartily on the success of your pious and patriotic effort to commemorate an event so creditable to the patriotism of our people, and hope still to see the day when the men of the South will raise in honor of the immortal women of the South a monument more beautiful than any which adorns our country. North or South, commemorating their superb devotion during the unequal struggle, the steadfast loyalty to its principles and its heroes since its last shot was fired, and the tireless zeal with which they consecrated themselves to the defense of its martyrs' names and memories.

"I think if I were allowed to help in that consummated work it would be the greatest happiness I could be beg of the years that are left me.

"Your friend faithfully, A. M. KILEY."

ELK DELEGATION.

Messrs. Myer Saal and John T. Parham, who were among the delegates from the Petersburg Lodge of Elk to the Grand Lodge at Cincinnati, have returned home, and give an enthusiastic account of their visit. Among the star features was the great entertainment given to the Grand Lodge by the National Cash Register Company at Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. Saal, who was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Saal, reached home on Saturday evening. Mr. W. T. Baugh, who was also a delegate, continued his trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis.

The Petersburg Lodge of Elk is organizing a Buffalo club, of which they purpose to carry a hundred members to the next meeting of the Grand Lodge, which is to take place in Buffalo, N. Y.

CITY ENGINEER.

It is understood that Mr. W. L. Law, son of General Law, of the Confederate army, and the engineer in charge of the work of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company on the Upper Appomattox River, is among the applicants for the position of city engineer.

Messrs. T. F. Heath & Company, who haul hay and grain stores were destroyed by the fire on Saturday morning last, have removed to their new buildings, which narrowly escaped destruction in the fire, as the adjoining building was burned.

It is just being completed. It is not yet known whether or not the establishment of Nelson, Morris & Company, of Chicago, will be rebuilt. Their manager here says that he has so far received no instructions that effect.

Negro Arrested.

William Knight, a negro, who escaped from the Richmond jail a year ago last April by crawling through a coal chute, was arrested here Saturday by Officers J. M. Stewart and J. J. Heelan, of the Petersburg police.

Captain England has been on the look-out here for a negro named Davy Bramberry, who was wanted in Washington, D. C., for the theft of a diamond ring valued at $90. On Friday last Officer Hall arrested a negro at Dayton, Ohio, of being the man wanted, and Captain England, once sent a description of the prisoner to Major Sylvester, of Washington Detective Bureau. Last night Detective Muller arrived here from that city and this morning took the man back to Washington.

The funeral of Mr. Robert Taylor, who died on Saturday night at the residence of his father, Mr. William Taylor, took place this morning from the home.

"WHO IS MORTON?"

The Admiral Received an Answer to His Question Quick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—In navy circles here the laugh is on Rear-Admiral Tates Stirling, of the Asiatic squadron.

Paul Morton, Secretary of the Navy, comes in for a bit of gibing, too, and the President, who placed an "unknown" in that chair of the meritorious, is a reflection of the meritorious.

Secretary Morton sent a cablegram to Stirling the other day, containing instructions in accordance with custom, he signed his name only.

Evidently the news of Morton's appointment to the post of navy secretary had not reached the Asiatic squadron, for Stirling's reply came:

"Instructions received. Will be carried out in accordance with custom."

It is thought the admiral was not long in obtaining the information he sought.

Sore Throat

Throat affections should never be neglected. Sore throat leads to Quinsy and Diphtheria. It is of vital importance to have a remedy at hand in the early stages of the disease. Many are the deaths that have resulted from neglected Sore Throat.

Hamlin's Wizard Oil
CURES THIS DISEASE QUICKLY AND EFFECTIVELY.
C. A. Bryant, of Annapolis City, Col., writes: Last summer I suffered constantly with Sore Throat and had the best doctors I could get, but they gave me no relief. The first application of Hamlin's Wizard Oil gave me relief and by using it a few days I was entirely cured. A bottle of Hamlin's Wizard Oil is worth its weight in gold to any person.

Henry Wade, of Washington, La., writes, Sept. 4, 1903: My wife suffered with Sore Throat for a year, and though she declined and doctored nothing seemed to help her. I procured a bottle of Hamlin's Wizard Oil and it has done more good than anything I could find.

There is only one Wizard Oil—Hamlin's—name blown in the bottle. Signature "Hamlin Bros." on wrapper. Take no substitute. 50c. and $1.00.

ATTEND THE TRIAL

Harvest Hands Quit the Field to Attend Court—A Horrible Deed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., July 25.—The case of Joseph H. Copenhaver, a wealthy and hitherto prominent gentleman farmer, who on April 18th last shot and killed his wife at their home in Clarke county, was called in the Circuit Court at Berryville, to-day before Judge Thomas W. Harrison, of this city, but owing to several jurors being excused by law from jury duty, the jurors were discharged and a new venire summoned for to-morrow, when the trial will begin. The case has attracted widespread interest, and the court room and streets of Berryville were thronged with farmers and harvest hands, who practically threw down their work in a busy season to attend the trial.

A large number of witnesses have been summoned from Clarke county, and one as far south as Newberry, S. C., Rev. W. L. Seabrook, formerly pastor of Grace

Lutheran Church, this city, of which the dead woman was a member. Prosecuting

Attorney William T. Lewis, of Clarke county, Frank B. Whiting, of Berryville, and Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester, represent the State, and Marshall McCormick and Blackburn Smith, both of Berryville, are counsel for Copenhaver.

The prisoner's crime was the most horrible deed committed in Clarke county in many years. He arose on the morning of Saturday, April 16th, and after complaining of breakfast being cold, turned around and shot his wife with a pistol.

She lived only a few minutes, dying in his arms. He at once locked himself in the house, and was later found asleep in bed and drunk by the officers, who hauled him to Berryville, where he has since been confined in jail. At times he was said to be mentally deranged, and at night uttered agonizing cries of remorse.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER

IN SPOTSYLVANIA

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OLD CHURCH, VA., July 25.—A negro was arrested to-day and sent on to Hanover, Va., for the murder of a colored girl. The man, whose name is not known, was arrested by a patrolman of the county. The girl was found dead in a field near the railway camp at Summit, in that county.

The girl was sent by her mistress to a store, and on returning, search was instituted, and her dead body was found next day in the bushes near the road.

A Mixed Family.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 25.—Mr.

John T. Carnell, of Spotsylvania county, has a turkey hen, which has in her young brood five turkeys, six chickens and seven partridges. The turkey hen made a nest in the woods near Mr. Carnell's home, and after laying a number of eggs, commenced setting.

The nest was built in the turkey hen's cauldron, and she was very particular about the food she fed her young. The partridges are fed with the chickens and turkeys and are tame. It is believed that the mother and her young are the first of the kind to be seen in this section of the county. The mother and her young are the first of the kind to be seen in this section of the county. The mother and her young

MOVES WITH HIS RIFLE

Three Young Fellows Struck

by a Train and One Killed and One Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 25.—A posse is forming in Princess Anne county to take

Frank Satterthright, the murderer of his wife, who is reported barricaded in the house of his father, eight miles from the scene of the crime.

It seems that after the tragedy, Satterthright went to Lynnhaven Station of the Norfolk and Southern and there bragged of the deed he had committed to some bystanders.

Satterthright was seen Sunday in his father's garden, gathering cabbage for dinner, but he never moved around without having a rifle close beside him.

FIRE ON A BURLAR.

A white man, who is believed to be a rear window of Mr. D. E. Suter's home, at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, was fired at by Mr. Suter. The tramp immediately bolted and was not seen any more.

Mrs. Suter, mother of Mr. Suter, was found inside the house in a state of hysteria, being greatly frightened by the appearance of the burglar trying to gain an entrance.

The petition of Mr. D. Lawrence Groner, stockholder in the Chesapeake Transit Company, for a mandamus to compel this company, Mr. John T. Bacon, its secretary, Mr. S. W. C. Jones, treasurer, to produce the by-laws and books of the company, was heard in the Court of Law and Chancery to-day and the case was continued until August 1st.

A DISAGREEMENT.

A disagreement has arisen in the newly established board for the examination and licensing of working plumbers in Norfolk.

The question under consideration is whether the board shall extend its supervision equally over the plumbing business for the year or do it all in two weeks and take a well earned rest for the other fifty.

Mr. Guy, one of the members, desires to hold all the meetings as rapidly as possible, as long as there are any candidates to be examined. Each time Mr. Guy serves he gets $5. It is stated by some that Mr. Guy desires to earn his salary as soon as possible. Dr. Burton, another member opposes this proceeding, as being in conflict with the law. Mr. Orr is also in opposition to Mr. Guy.

STREET RAIL TRAIN.

Elmer Cotton, eighteen years old, killed

George Hunt, eighteen years old, seriously injured, and Bernard Cooper, uninjured were three young fellows struck by the fast south-bound express on the Seaboard Air-Line Railway Sunday morning, while sleeping on the tracks, five and a half miles this side of Littleton, N. C.

Al three were Portsmouth lads and the injured one and Bernard Cooper are now in the city. The inquest will occur to-night.

BOMB IN THE CAMP.

Teachers Must be Vaccinated or Quit.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., July 25.—C. W.

Harper, J. V. Ferguson and W. O. Sewell, three young men from Australia, are touring this country for the purpose of investigating fruit and agricultural conditions.

They were at Apple Pie Ridge, west of town, last week, and were very much pleased with fruit conditions in this locality. The young men are students at the leading agricultural college at Australia, and will make known the result of their observations through several of the agricultural periodicals.

The county board of school trustees has cast a bomb into the camp of the Free-rick county teachers, that is calculated to bring forth a protest from those of the teachers who discountenance vaccination.

Some months since, when there was an epidemic of something like "Cuban itch," the county board issued an order that all school children should be vaccinated, but many parents objected, and some of the teachers flatly refused. No vote board decides that all who expect to become teachers at the coming session must be vaccinated and present the board with satisfactory evidence of vaccination.

On the other hand, Mrs. R. D. Shepard has an engagement to go on the vaudeville stage, and will shortly appear in the little play called "The Maid, the Mouse and the Man." She has recently written a play of her own, in which she makes later on, Oct. 1st, she is a fascinating actress, and she and her husband, who summer at their attractive home, "Goose Farm," near Shepherdstown, W. Va., have frequently played in this city and in Richmond. Mr. Shepard appeared under the stage name of R. D. McLean.

ABDUCTED YOUNG GIRL.

Sad Meeting of Father and Daughter on Railway Train.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, VA., July 25.—Police Chief

Robinson, of Edenton, N. C., and Sheriff

Norman, of Cowan county, N. C., came to Virginia for three prisoners. They only wanted one in Suffolk—Joe Harrison alias Joshua Sawyer, a negro wanted in Edenton for horse stealing.

Before coming to Suffolk the officers went to
